

THE ORCHILL ROAD RACE

Main Sponsors: Gleneagles Hotel & Orchill Fishery

SUNDAY, JUNE 20th, 2010: START TIME: 10.30am / Entries Close 10.15am

The race route has been measured electronically. The race must be completed in 2hours 30 minutes

This brand new fund raising road race is set in beautiful countryside next to the world famous Gleneagles Hotel and golf courses. The race is open to anyone over 18 years of age on the day of the race. A permit to stage this event has been obtained from Scottish Athletics (SA).

The race begins at the Gleneagles Hotel Equestrian Centre by Auchterarder, PH3 1NF at 10.30am. You will run down the Equestrian Centre drive way and turn right towards Braco on the Auchterarder to Braco minor road. It is mostly flat with gentle rises but undulates near the middle section at around 4 kilometres. The route makes its way through beautiful Strathallan passing lovely Orchill Castle towards Braco and the turning/water point before the Crieff to Braco road 8.5 kilometres out. You then run back towards Auchterarder and finish at the Equestrian Centre drive way from where you started. There will be a water point at 4 kilometres, which is also used on the return journey.

There will be a very welcome free half pint of beer or juice to all finishers courtesy of Gleneagles Hotel. The prize giving will be held in the Equestrian Centre lounge after the race is completed.

TOTAL PRIZE LIST VALUED AT OVER £1,000. Prize giving will be held in the Equestrian Centre lounge at 12.45pm.
